JUST Digital Diary

App uses manual:

At first you have to collect this app from other device or play store. If you want to download this app from Google Play Store-

a. Search by "JUST Digital Diary" on Google Play Store. Then your search result will look like-

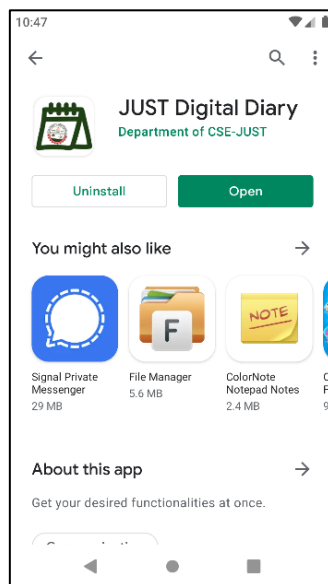

Figure 1: Searching app

Figure 2: Downloading app

Figure 3: Login interface

b. Click on the selected area and install the app by-

c. Click on the open button and you will see a Login interface. If you are already have a membership of this app then enter your registered email and password and click on Login button (Shown in Figure3).

Otherwise if you don't have any account, please click on Sign Up button and you will find a simple form to create your membership. Fill the form with appropriate information then click on Sign Up button (Shown in Figure4).
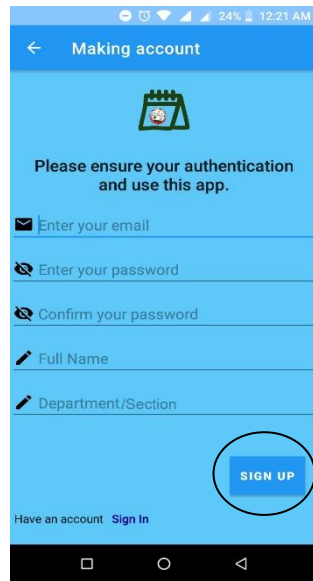

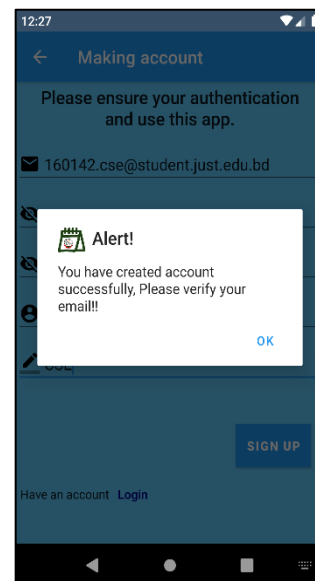

Figure 4: Creating account

*Figure 5: Create account
successful message*

d. After creating your account successfully it will show you a dialog to inform that an email verification link has been sent to your registered email address (Shown in Figure5).

e. Now go to your mail account in your mobile phone or other device and click on the sent link to verify that your given email address is exist. After clicking on the received link it will show you a successful message. Now you have to back into the app to login into your account. Fill the two given text box with registered information and click on Login button which shown in the figure3.

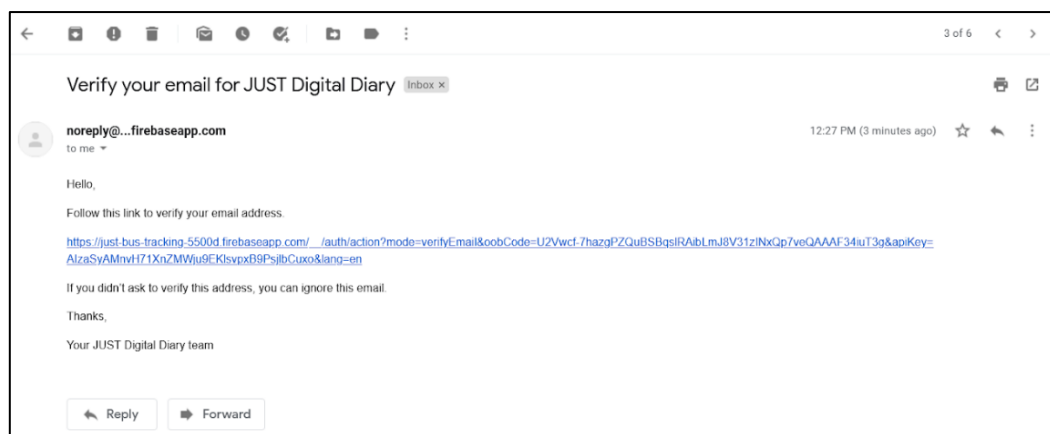

Figure 2: Verification mail to verify it's you

f. Now come back to app and login with your email and password and click Login button. That's it, now you are our respective member of this app and get your desired service.